... Easy Answers Or Tough...

Mr. James Power, the counselor and a former English teacher at Iowa High School, has helped an uncountable number of students with their problems, from giving advice and seeing them through hard times, to guiding them on the road to a higher education by aiding them in selecting careers and colleges for their futures. Originally from Kinder, LA, he has a bachelor's degree and master's in education, both from McNeese. He has spent eight of his ten years in the field of education at Iowa High school, four as an English teacher and four as a counselor.

He says that his biggest challenge as a counselor is helping students with their serious problems. "They come into my office looking for an easy answer — it's tough." He is also very pressed for time. He says that if he had all day to counsel, things would be a lot better, but he is overloaded with paperwork. Another difficult part of his job is handing out scholarships for seniors. It's a big and often unappreciated sacrifice since he is not required to do it. It is hard because he can't get any cooperation from the students. "They just wait for things to fall in their laps and don't bother to fill the applications out in time," he says.

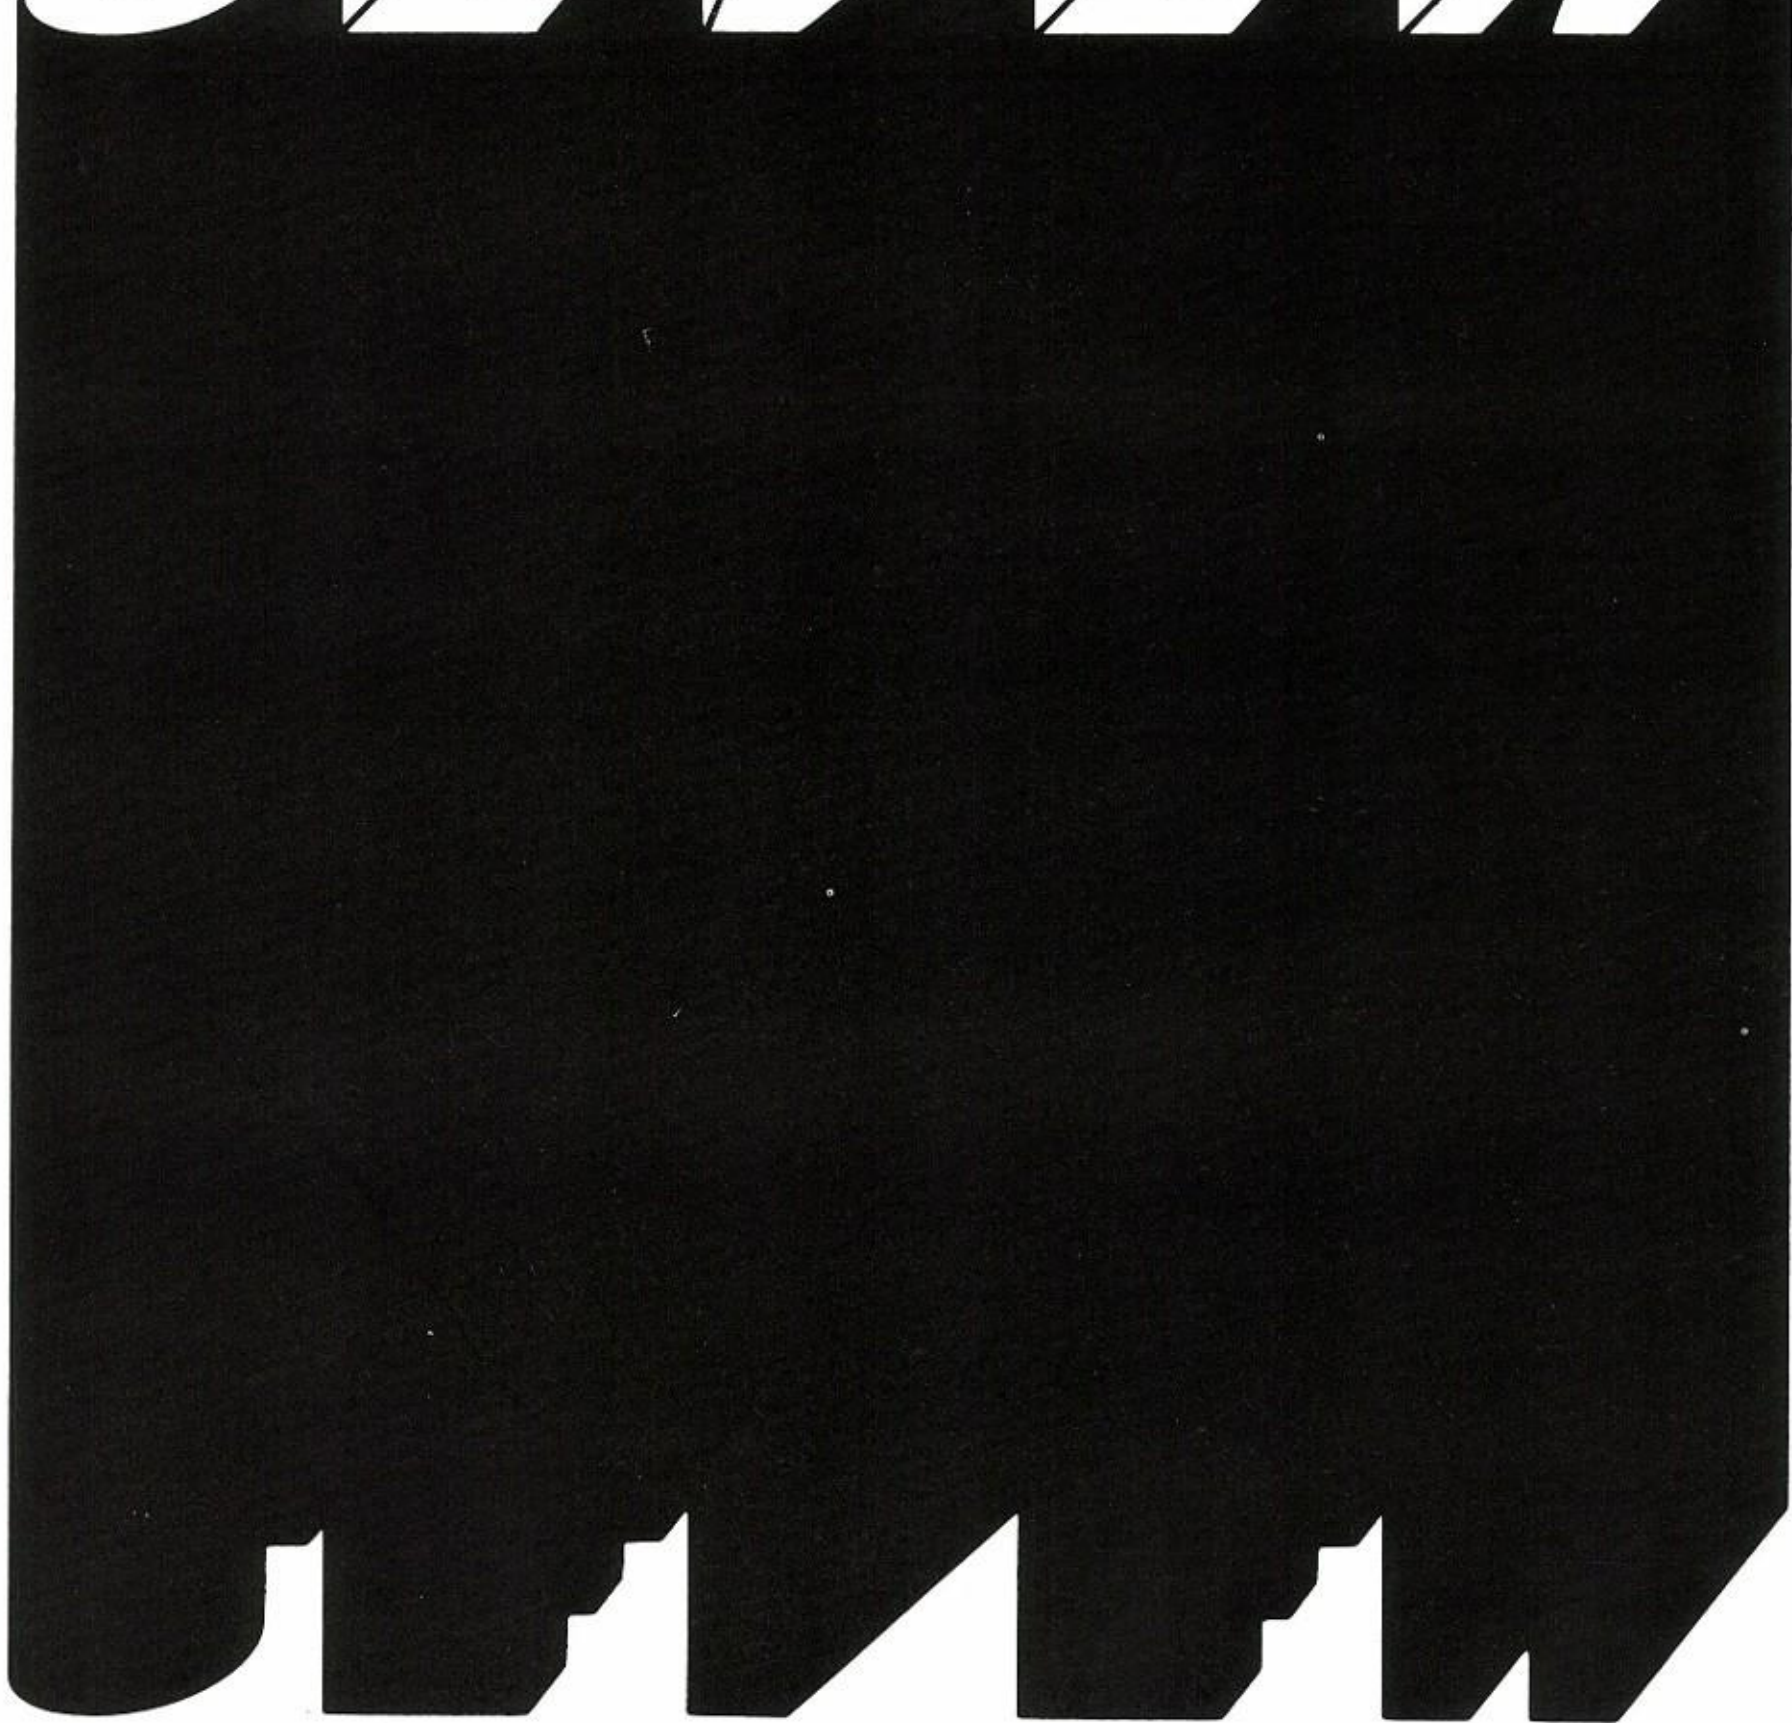

He has seen several changes since he was in school. "Back then the big problem was chewing gum and asking a girl on a date," he says. "Today, it is the pressure, the drugs, the alcohol, you name it."

Mr. Powers currently lives in Lake Charles with his wife, Teresa, and daughter, Amanda Renee. He and his wife are expecting another child soon. "I don't care if it's a boy or a girl," he says, "as long as it's healthy."

MEMORIES

An English Experience

On August 5, 1986, a small group of students from Iowa High set off on a nine-day, once-in-a-lifetime adventure. Pam LeBleu, Joany Young, Tammy Dugas, and Mrs. Belinda Dugas went on a trip to England, sponsored by Dr. Nancy Key. The group flew on a TWA plane out of Houston to John F. Kennedy Airport in New York. From New York, they flew into Heathrow in London. In New York the group from Iowa met with a group from Baton Rouge, La., a group from Waycross, Ga., and a group from Annapolis, Md.

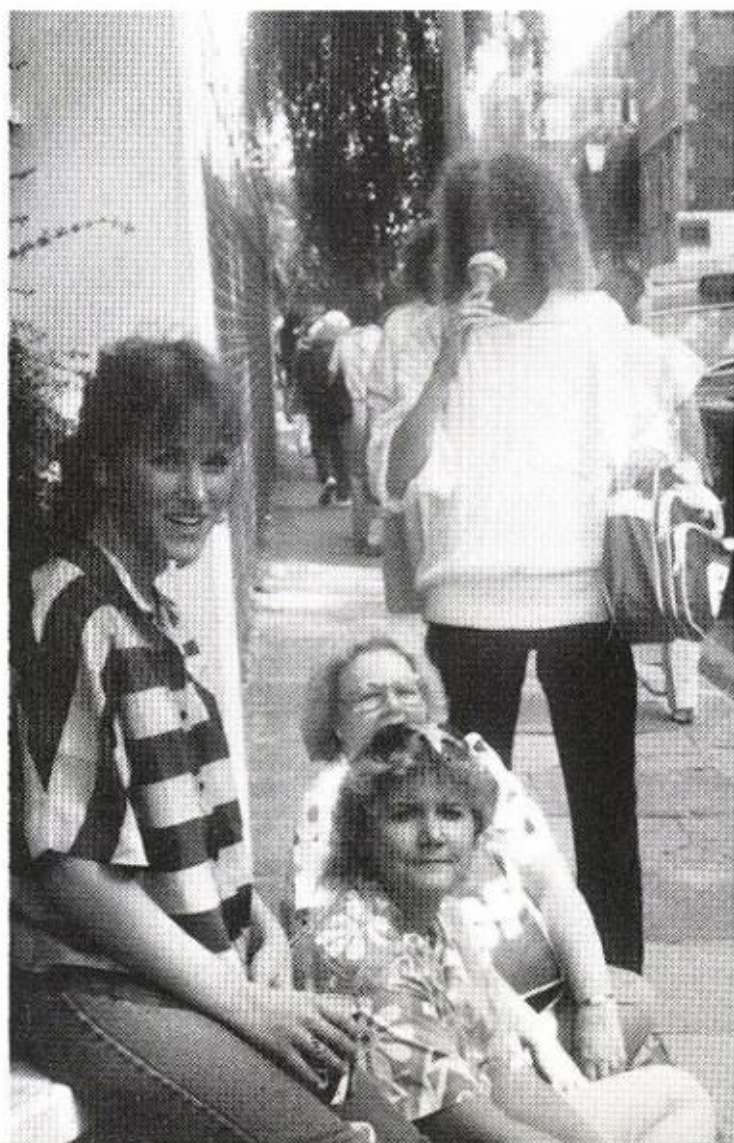

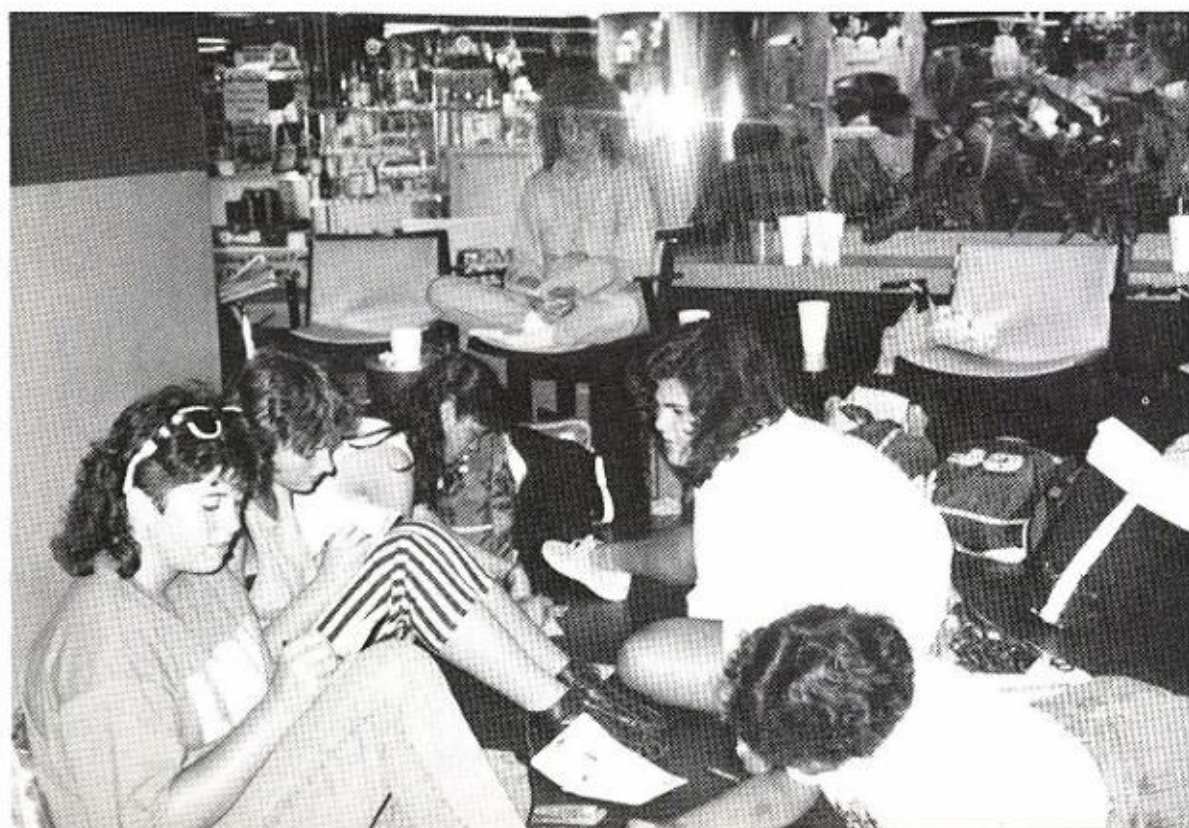

While in London, the group stayed at the Royal Scott Inn. They visited Windsor, Stratford, Oxford, Bath, Salisbury, and Stonehenge. The group also visited such sights as: St. Paul's Cathedral, Westminster Abbey, the House of Parliament, Big Ben, Tower of London, Changing of the Guards at Buckingham Palace, and a costume exhibit at the Victorian Albert Museum in London.

The group also saw the plays Mutiny, The Mousetrap, and Blythe Spirit. This year the students even visited Portabello Road and Clapham Green which are two very large, very famous flea Markets.

Most of the students agree that the food in England is not as good as it is here in the U.S. However, they did enjoy their Visit to Hard Rock Cafe. The "trekkers" also gave a lot of business to a pizza parlor across the street from their hotel. They did have a "short walk" to one restaurant. Dr. Key, losing her famous "sense of direction," led the group for an hour and a half on the way to the George Inn, an inn built in 1612.

Both students and parents felt that the trip was a good one. "All in all, it was a fun and educational experience that will never be forgotten," said Dr. Key.

Homecoming week at Iowa High . . . a tradition met with enthusiasm by the student body. This year homecoming week started on September 29. Monday was sunshades and hat day; Tuesday, tacky and inside out day; Wednesday, 50's day; Thursday, toga day; and Friday, purple and gold day.

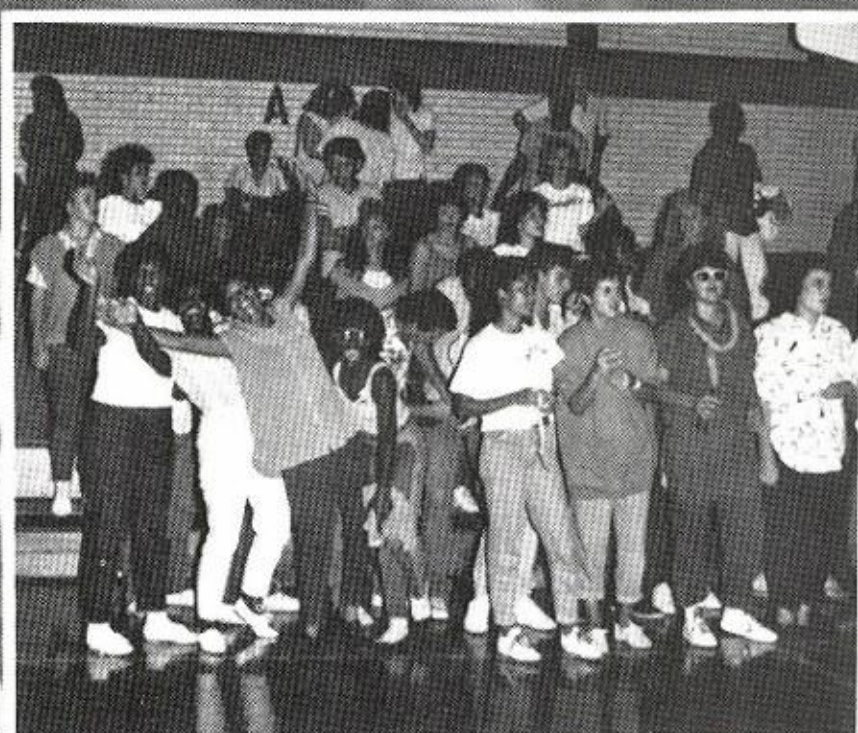

The annual parade was Thursday afternoon. The procession began at J.I. Watson and ended at the high school. First place winner in the float division was the junior class entry; in the car division, it was the Key Club entry.

The students really showed their enthusiasm at the pep rally on Friday afternoon. Everyone got a special treat as the senior football players wrestled with a Vinton lion. The students and football team left school Friday inspired and enthusiastic, ready for the nighttime activities.

The Night Life

Excitement and spirit could be felt in the air as students, parents, and alumni prepared themselves for the last night of Homecoming '86. As the game began, the crowd cheered the Jackets on in a grueling game against the Vinton Lions. At halftime, the 1986 homecoming court was presented. Miss Delane Comeax was crowned 1986 homecoming queen. The game resumed after the Queen and her court were presented. Iowa fans were disappointed as the Lions defeated the Jackets, 13-8. But Iowa got a bit of good news later when Vinton had to forfeit because of an ineligible player; the Jackets ended up with a homecoming victory after all.

The 1986 homecoming court featured eleven maids. They were as follows: Tisha Benoit, Michelle Nash; freshman maids; Amy Foreman, Monica LaCombe; sophomore maids; Shelly Ardoin, Nikki Breaux, and Tammy Huval, junior maids; Shery Corbello, Cheri Aremment, Delane Comeax, and Camille Semiem, senior maids.

1987 Literary Rally

IHS sent a thirty-six member team to the Southwest Louisiana District Literary Rally at McNeese on March 14, 1987. Twenty-four of them placed and fifteen were state qualifiers. At state, Joy Nelson won second place in English I and Alvin Cormier won third place in American government.

Six students placed first at MSU: Dana Sharp, Stenography I; Greg Miller, Vo. Ag. III; Chris Evans, computer science; Debra Howell, Consumer Home-making I; Laurie Vidrine, human development and family relationships; and Kevin Natali, Vo. Ag. I. Taking second were Doug Nunez, general business; Eric Alexander, free enterprise; Christi Denison, Vo. Ag. II; Lee Ann Marcantel, Vo. Ag. IV; Charles Droddy, physical science; and Marlon Marshall, world geography.

Third place winners included Alvin Cormier, government; Camille Semien, food and nutrition; Jeff Miller, environmental science; Joy Nelson, English I and Sarah Buller, journalism. Fourth place winners:

Shawn Augustine, Bookkeeping I; Michael Rogers, French I; Amy Leger, French II; and Greg Reed, trigonometry. Fifth place winners: Wendy Benoit, Algebra I; Shannon Savoy, civics; and Lilly Elmore, spelling.

Also participating in the rally were Shannon Hill, Typewriting I; Delicia Sonnier, English II; Melissa Lalanne, English III; Delane Comeaux, English IV; Licia Leger, Biology I; Michael LaCombe, chemistry; Sharon Broussard, management of resources; Kristi Hartnett, American history; Charlotte Thigpen, general history; Joany Young, Algebra II; Laureal Louviere, geometry; and Dean Peloquin, advanced math.

Alisa Chappell Named First Runner-Up

“Shocked”: Camille’s Reaction

Camille Semien, a senior class representative, was chosen for the 1986 — 87 Annual Beauty Queen. Camille has been in the annual beauty pageant four times. She was shocked to be selected queen “because I didn’t expect to be in the top ten,” she said. Cheri Arsement, another senior class representative, was selected as Miss Congeniality. Delane Comeaux, also a senior representative, was named Miss Photogenic.

First runner up was Alisa Chappell, a senior class representative; second — Kristie Hartnett, basketball team representative; third — Shawn Augustine, senior class representative; fourth — Wendy Benoit, a representative of the freshman class.

The other contestants were Shelly Ardoin, junior class; Cheri Arsement, senior class; Belinda Atchison, N.H.S.; Kelli Benoit; S.A.P.E.; Tisha Benoit; freshman class; Delane Comeaux, senior class; Shelly Corbello, cheerleaders; Sheryl Corbello, F.F.A.; Carmen Denison, 4-H Club; Christi Denison, Rodeo Club; Stephanie Faul, French Club; Amy Foreman; sophomore class; Leann Harrington, F.H.A.; Tammy Huval, junior class; Pam LeBleu, Drama Club; Laoreal Louviere, Key Club; Lee Ann Marcantel, annual staff; Jill McCown, F.B.L.A.; Michelle Morgan, band; Rhonda Mott, sophomore class; Delicia Sonnier, sophomore class; Charlotte Thigpen, student council.

"WORD UP"

The fads of 1986-1987 are definitely unique. Girls are wearing straight skirts in every length. Guys are wearing loafers, ties, and baggy pants. Wild prints, big hoop earrings, silver shoes, and cropped or rolled pants are seen everywhere. Hair styles are extreme, super short, geometric bobs, or extra-long. The trends of today will be remembered by generations to come.

In January, all Iowa High students were asked to fill out a survey form. On this form there were eleven categories and three yes/no questions. The survey was handed out by the Iowa High Annual Staff in a quest to find out the "favorites" of today's teen-agers. (Percents have been rounded off.)

Beach Bums Catch The Wave

Beach Bums . . . That was the theme of this year's "girl-ask-boy" spring dance sponsored by the IHS Student Council.

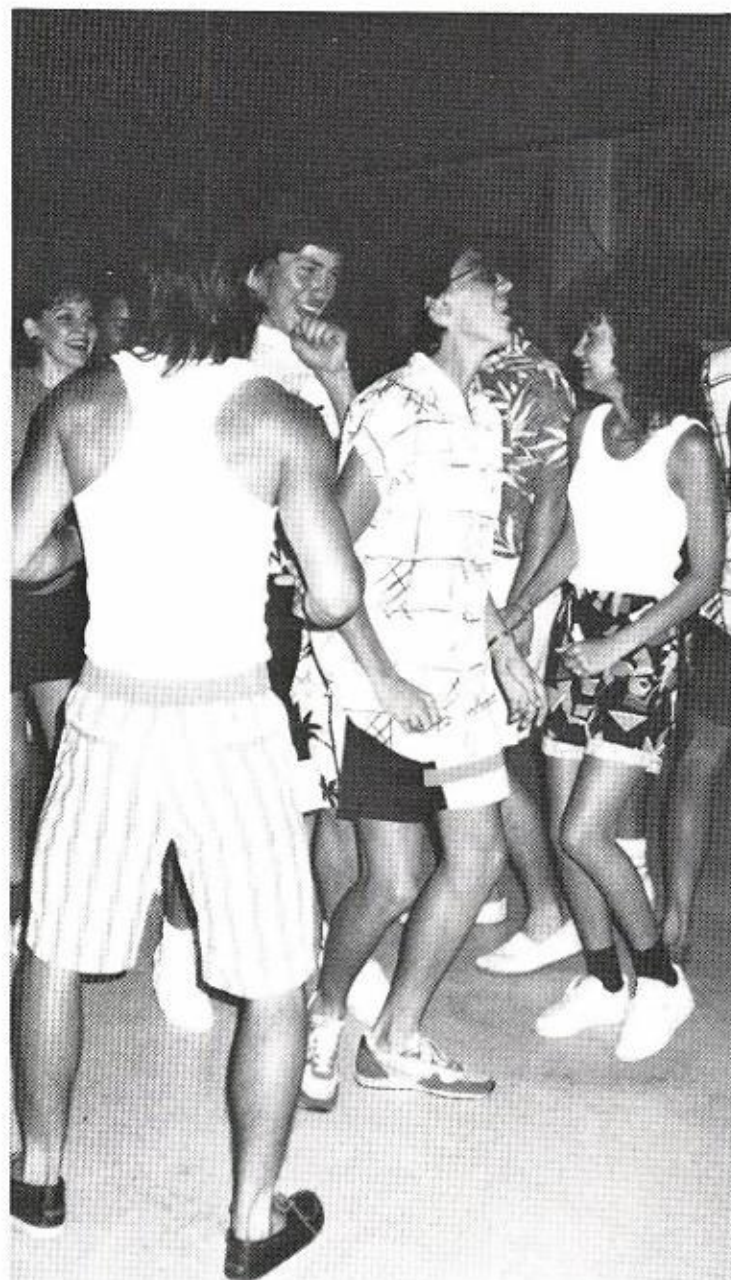

Contemporary music, as well as surfing songs from the Sixties, blasted throughout the cafeteria thanks to the disc jockey group "Future."

"Beach Bums" won out in a student body vote over "Paisley Paradise" and "Sadie Hawkins."

Jams, mini-skirts, flip-flops, sandals, Coca-Cola shirts and shades were donned by most of the "bums" attending.

Never Say Goodbye

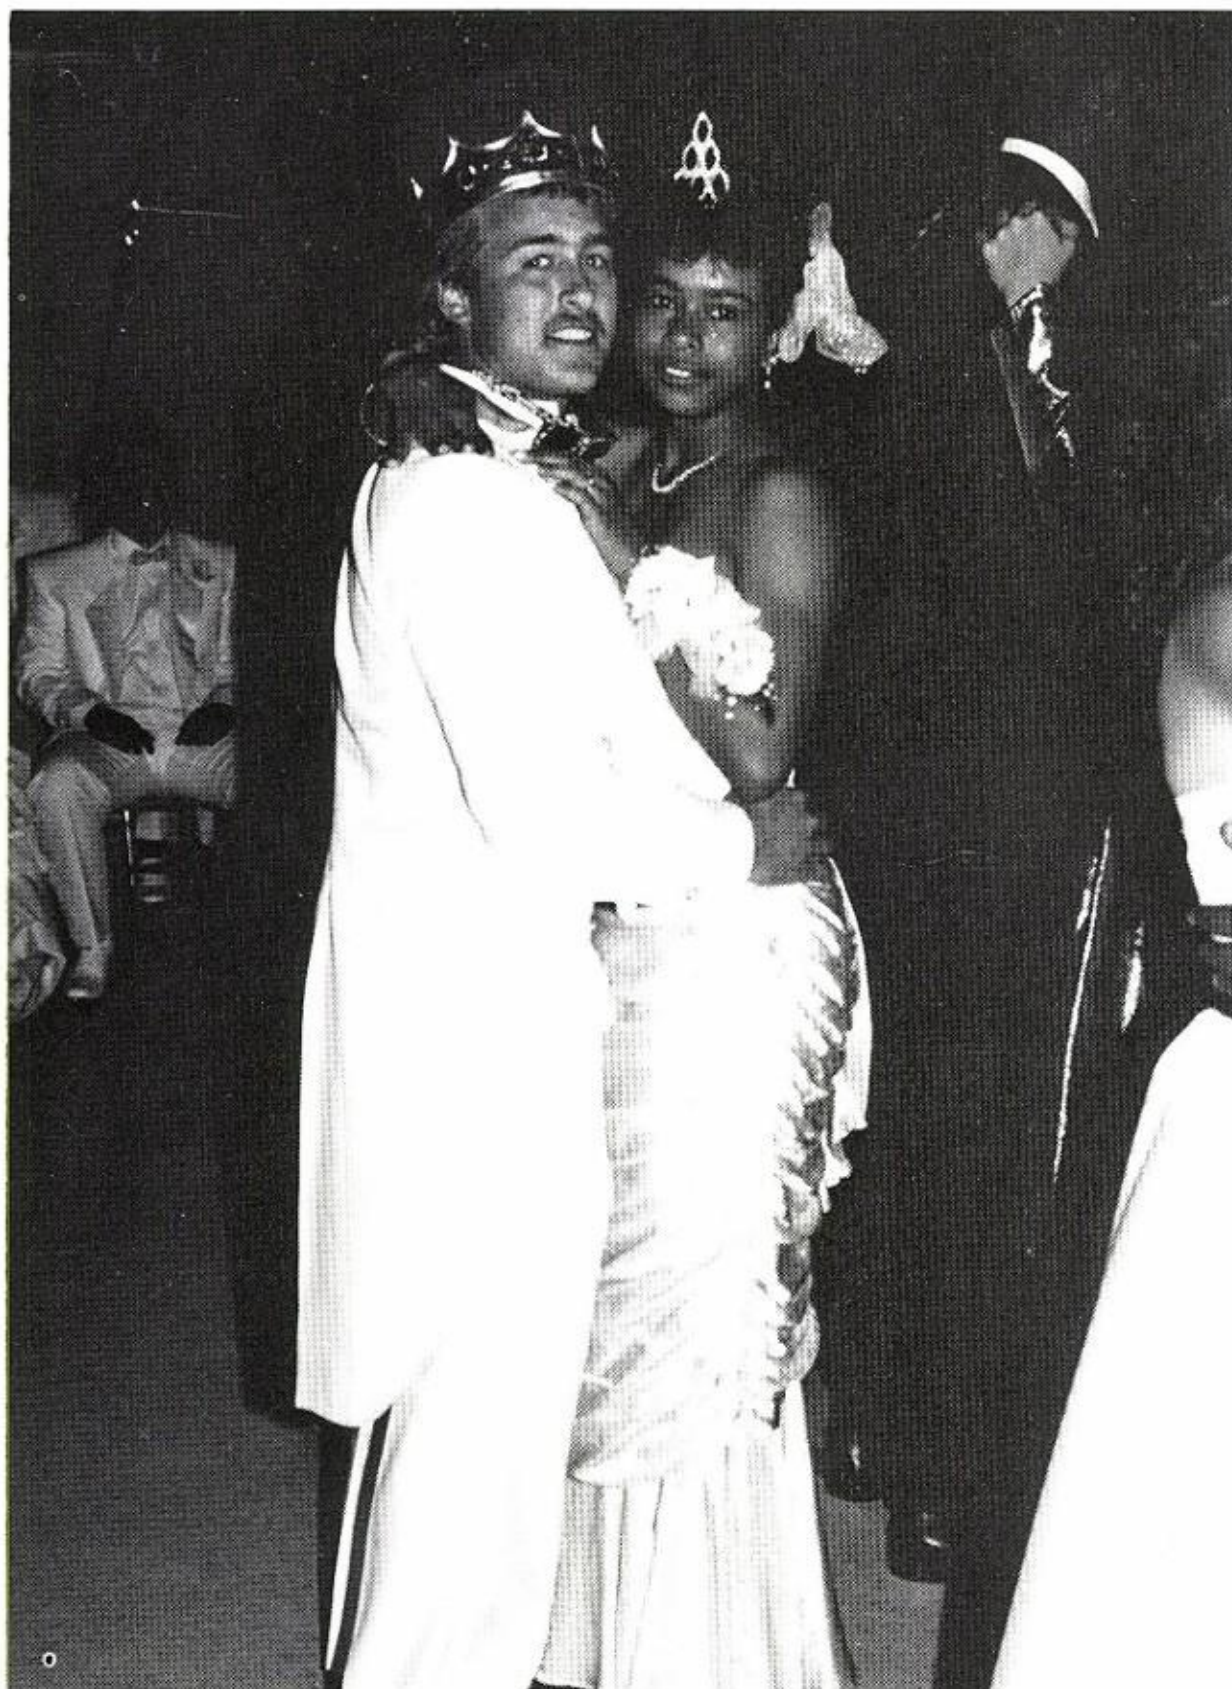

Prom 1987 was a huge success. The light purple and silver decorations provided a romantic background for the night's festivities. A splendid balloon tower acted as a majestic centerpiece to enhance the romantic setting. The romantic setting was accompanied by music from the deejay, Future.

The prom committee started decorating Friday afternoon and continued Saturday at 9:00 a.m. The committee consisted of: Joany Young, Amy Leger, Greg Miller, Tammy Huval, Rochelle LeBleu, Kelly Thibodeaux, Todd Clements, Missy LaLanne, Joey Hebert, Jason Frey, Tammy Dugas, and Nikki Breaux. Junior class sponsors included Ms. Irene Dugas, Mrs. Melissa Strauss, Ms. Janis Genius, and Mr. Alan Painter.

Memories

Tonight a curtain closes
 And we take a final bow,
 To the four years we have spent
 Which all slowly ending now.
 But let time stop this evening,
 For just an hour or two
 As we recall the memories
 That seem, right now, too few.
 And gathered all together
 We will not say "goodbye,"
 For thoughts that will prevail
 With us, of you, will never die.

Seniors Leave Advice

The senior class of 1987 wishes to leave a few "words of wisdom" to future seniors and students. We hope you'll learn by our mistakes.

GWEN ALLISON: Be prepared for a lot of work and be ready to make a lot of decisions, because you are preparing yourself for the Real World. JIMMY ANDERSON: Don't get Coach Young upset with you, because no one wants two last years. CHERI ARSEMENT: If at first you don't succeed, don't give up. If you do, you'll never see the light. BELINDA ATCHISON: Don't dwell on what has been; always dwell on what will be. SHAWN AUGUSTINE: Put your work before fun, because it will always pay off in the end. Set your goals high and never give up on them. And always try to see the good side of things. VALARIE BELLARD: Work hard to achieve what you want in your life in the future. Just do your best. CHARLES BENOIT: Start planning for your career now, because your senior year passes by too fast to try and decide your future. There are more important things on your mind, like graduating and leaving, to even want to worry about your future, so try to plan it before you worry about the parties. KELLI BENOIT: Do your best and don't have a cocky attitude, because it won't get you anywhere. Don't take things for granted, because it might upset you. Participate in school functions and activities. They are some good times to remember. SANDI BISHOP: Participate in all activities, do your best concerning grades, try your hardest to reach your goals, and really put forth a lot of effort. SARAH BULLER: If you don't like yourself, no one else will like you either. PATRICIA BUSBY: Work as hard as you can before you become a senior. Never look back, always forward to the future. And enjoy your senior year as much as you can. Also, make the most out of your life. SHERMAN BROUSSARD: What you do now is the key to the door of success. If you work hard to polish the key, it will soon pay off and fit the lock. BILLEE JO CHAFFIN: Live your life to the fullest and study hard. Make your senior year last, because when you're out you're on your own. SHANE CLEMENTS: Learn all that you can in what little time that they give you, and most of all be yourself. DELANE COMEAUX: I advise the seniors, to always do their homework, because it will pay off in college. SUZANNE DYKE: Have fun while you can, because high school doesn't last forever. LISA FOREMAN: Do the best you can do and participate in everything cause these are the best of times and they'll never come again. TONY FREDERICK: Enjoy yourself during school, because once you get out, life changes. SAM GARRETT: Get serious. You are fixing to start your real life which isn't as fun. LANE GENTRY: Stay in school, study hard, and get ready for the real world. You won't get a job without an education. BILLY GOOLSBY: Enjoy your last year in school, because it's no fun knowing you have to get out on your own. HEATHER HARMON: The harder you try, the better you feel, and the higher the rewards. LEANN HARRINGTON: I believe everyone, students and graduates included, should look at the bright side of things. If we only look at the dark side of things, we will never see a sunrise. JAMES HARVEY: Enjoy yourselves all you can in your last years of school. When you graduate and are out, you will wish you had done more. SHIRLEY JACKSON: Have faith in God and strive for perfection. You will find everything you want in life will come much easier. SHELTON JOHNSON: Enjoy your last year and your friends. Before you know it you will be on your own. MARVIN LAFLEUR: Just keep cool. It's not as hard as people say. Just stick with it. Don't give up. It's a good feeling being a senior and knowing you are going to make it. PAUL LANDRY: Do your best in everything and enjoy your last year, because it goes fast and even if you hate school, you will miss it. Make it fun, because these are the best years of your life. PAM LEBLEU: Do your best, it's never as hard as it seems. BILLY MARCANTEL: Set goals for yourself and work hard to achieve them. ERROL MARSHALL: Your senior year is your most important year in high school. Your success from now on depends on you. Work hard and never be ashamed to ask for a helping hand. MICHAEL MARSHALL: Don't act stupid. Pass your classes so you can get out of school. PETER MARSHALL: Live every day of your life, as if it were your last. And try to fulfill all your goals in life. PAM MARTIN: Be yourself; don't try to be like all the others. If you make a mistake, take the responsibility for it. Don't blame others. And if you really screw up, you just might learn from it. DEAN PELOQUIN: Hold your head up high and do your best, because it's the beginning of the rest of your life and you need to live it to the fullest. BOBBY REGAN: Always strive to do your best. Don't cut yourself short. Work hard at everything you do, no matter what it is. Because if you don't you will wish you did after all this stuff is over. ROXANNE ROGERS: Have fun, but make it in life successfully. Don't fall behind in school or grades, because it's hard to pick up the pieces. TAMMY ROGERS: Try as hard as you can to get what you want. Don't let anybody or anything stand in your way. It's your life, live it like you want. KRISTY RYAN: Always do your best, so you can be a proud graduate. Also, enjoy your senior year. It will be one of the most memorable years of your life. CAMILLE SEMIEN: Do your best at everything. Try hard and make sure that you study your work. If you don't study and have a positive attitude, you will never make it in the world. RANDY SITTIG: Be friends with everybody. If you don't have friends, your senior year could be a drag. DANA SHARP: Do the best you can in high school. Keep your grades up and don't get into any trouble. These are your last years, so enjoy them because you will never have them again. CHARLOTTE THIGPEN: Be in everything you can. Do your best. What you put into your work is what you come out with. Be yourself. BILL THOMPSON: Your senior year is probably the best time of your life. Do the best you can in everything you do and you will be rewarded well. Times may get tough, but just hang tight and everything will work out. Hopefully. NICOLE TRAHAN: Do your best, because it's your last year and it will most probably be one of the most important years of your life. CHERYL WALLING: Always do your best. It might not be easy but don't ever give up. That diploma is out there waiting for you. So go for it and always strive for better. JOHN WEBB: Stay away from drugs. I have made it through high school without them and so can you. No matter how down you get, you don't need drugs to lift you up. GWENNETTE WHITE: Never give up until you've reached that point. Always study hard and try to pass every class. Just give it your best.

"The seniors did a good job of leaving Iowa High School with something to build upon and for that we are truly grateful", head football coach Mike Oakley said.

Earl Miller rushed for 1,071 yards, the second consecutive season he has rushed for over 1,000 yards. Brandon Frey was the second leading rusher followed by Kim Dowden, Larry Bellard, and Shane Comeaux. Frey paced the Jackets in tackles trailed by Billy Marcantel, Eric Alexander, Earl Miller, and Chris Alexander.

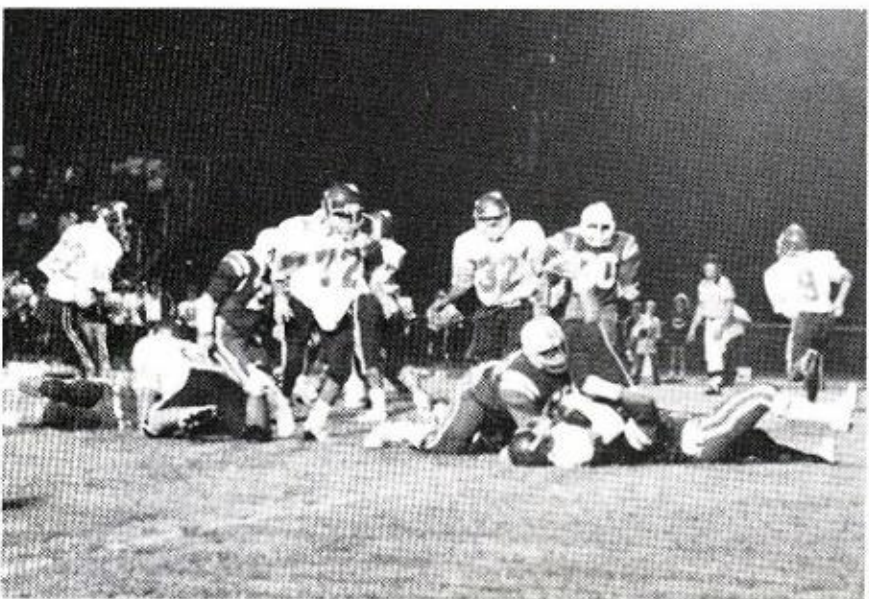

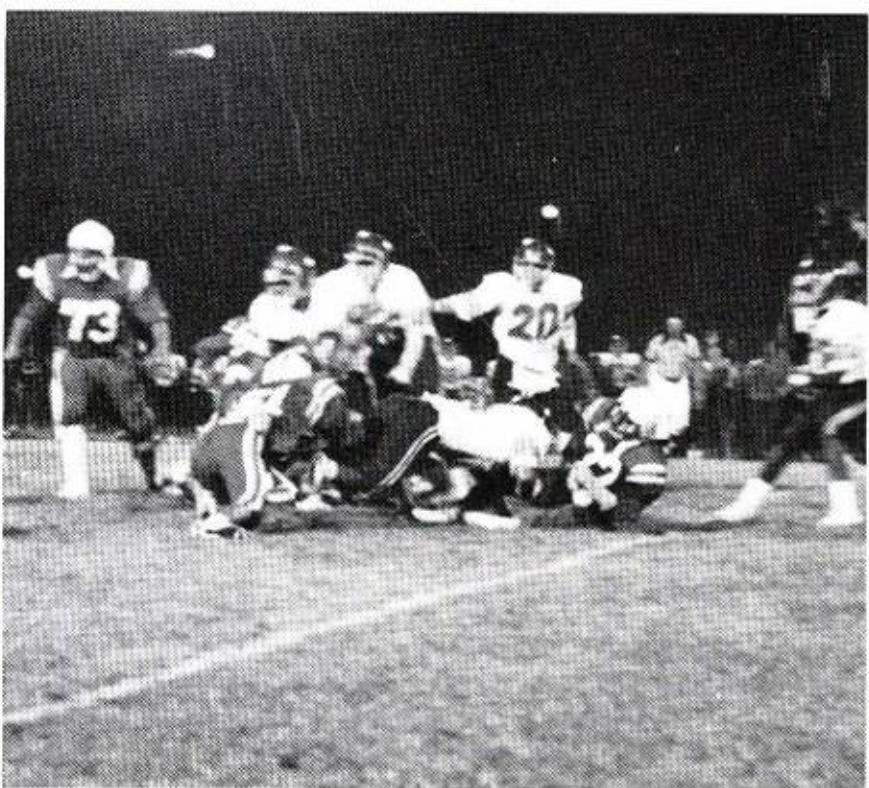

"We worked hard, made improvements, and gained a little respect in some areas. The boys realized that it takes more than just wanting to win. It means giving that little extra when you don't have that little extra to give," Oakley added.

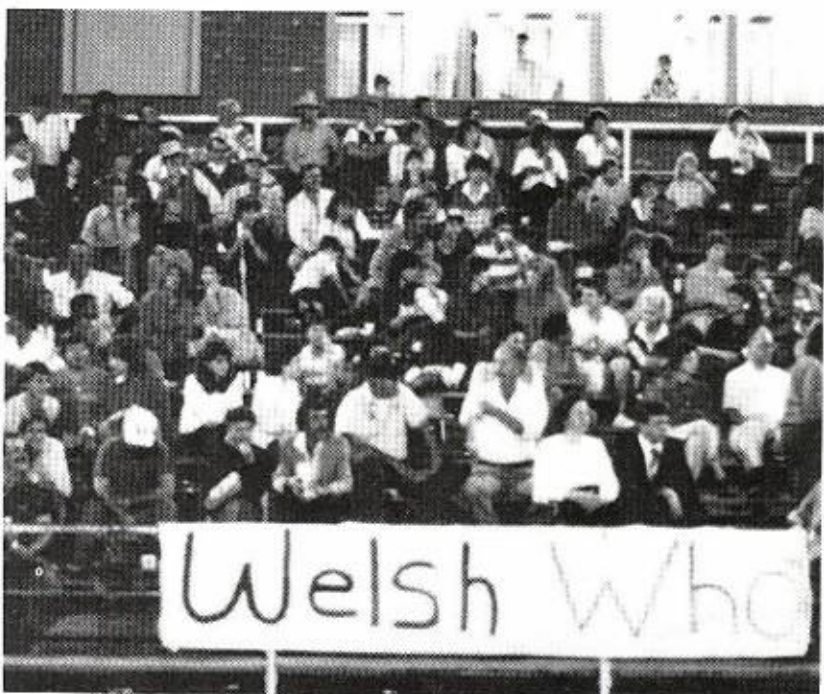

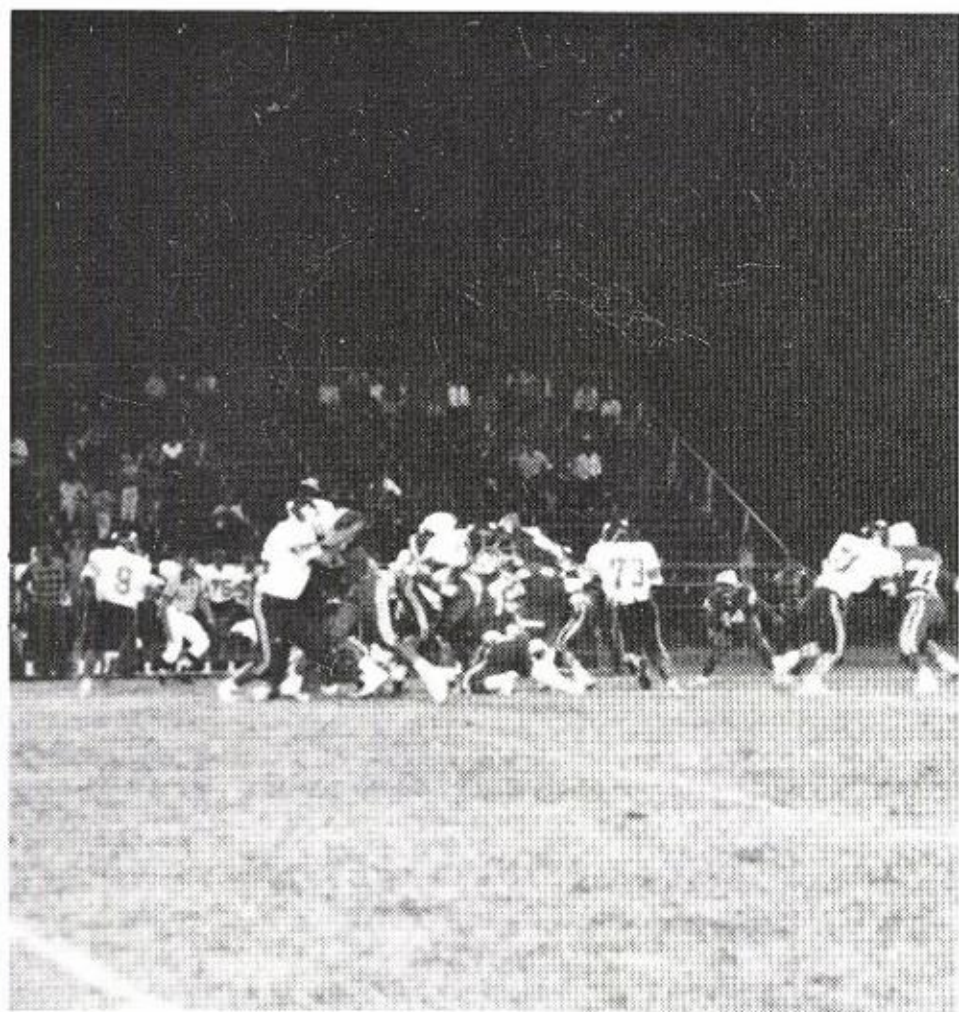

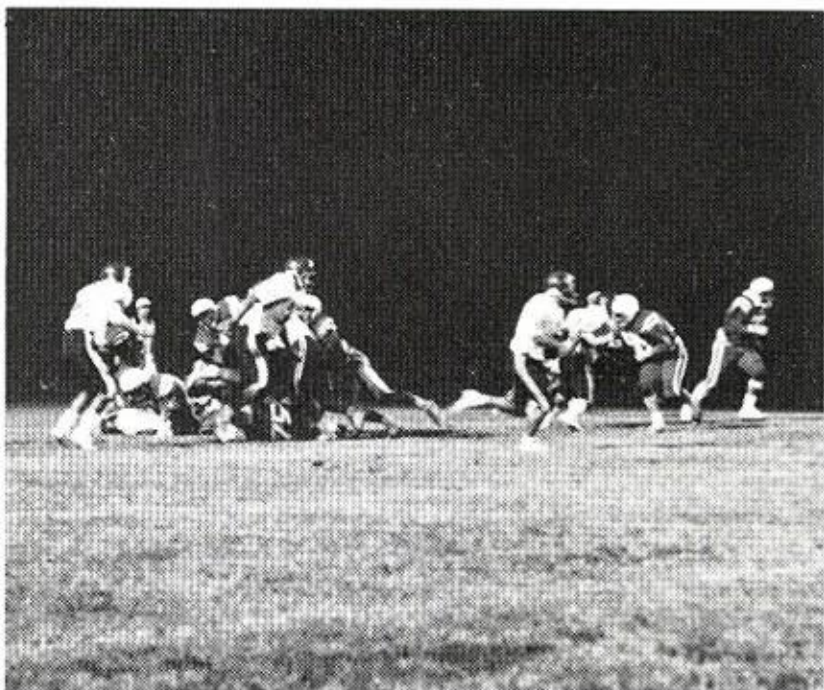

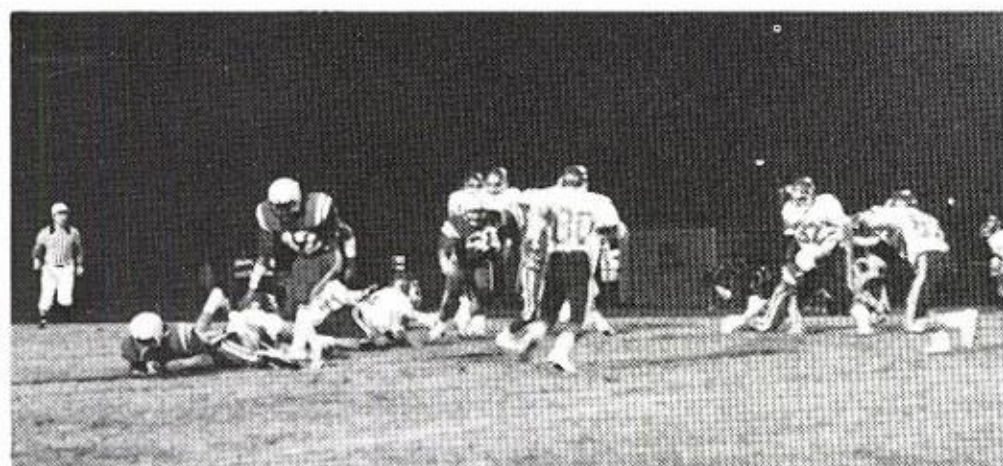

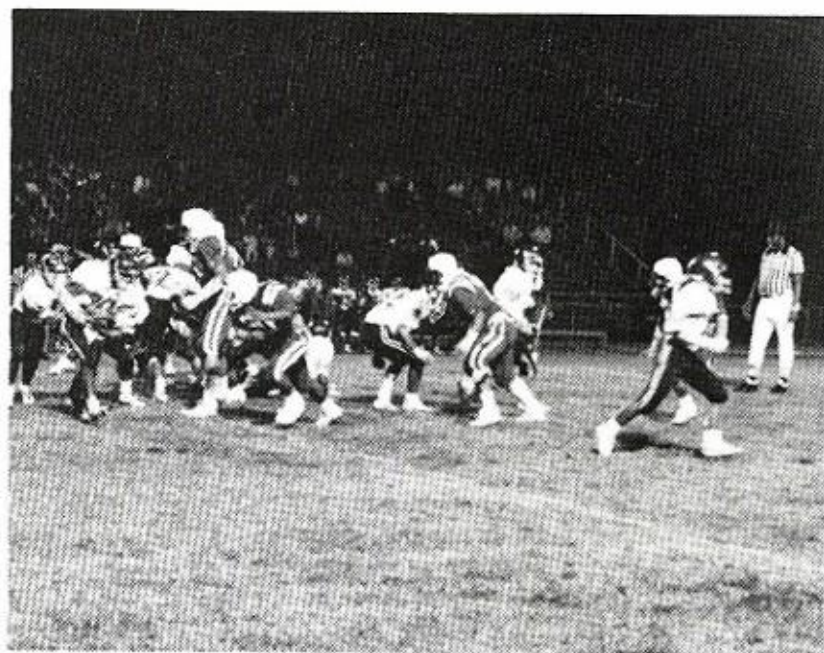

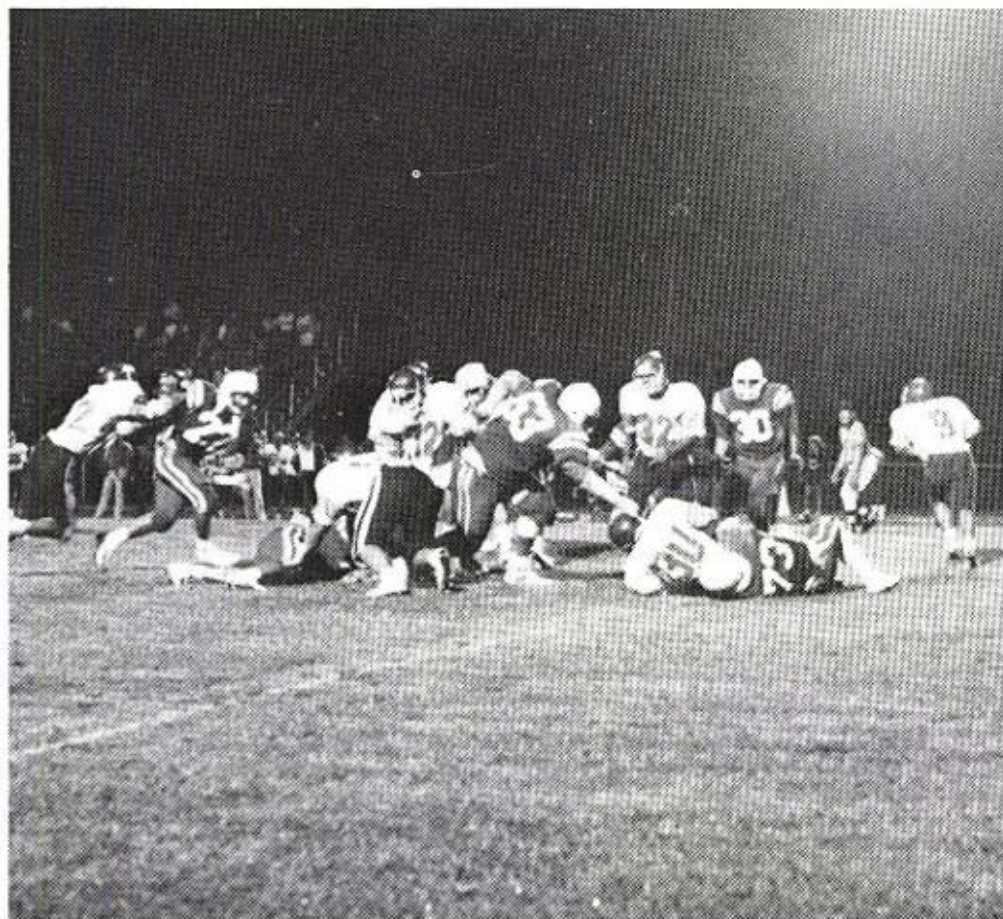

The entire season the Jackets made 120 first downs, the most coming against South Beauregard and Merryville. The Jackets accumulated 15 in each game. The Jackets had a total of 2,376 yards rushing for the season with 363 yards against Merryville being the most yards in a single game.

The Jackets passed for 161 yards against South Cameron which is more than half of the 250 yards the Jackets passed for the entire season.

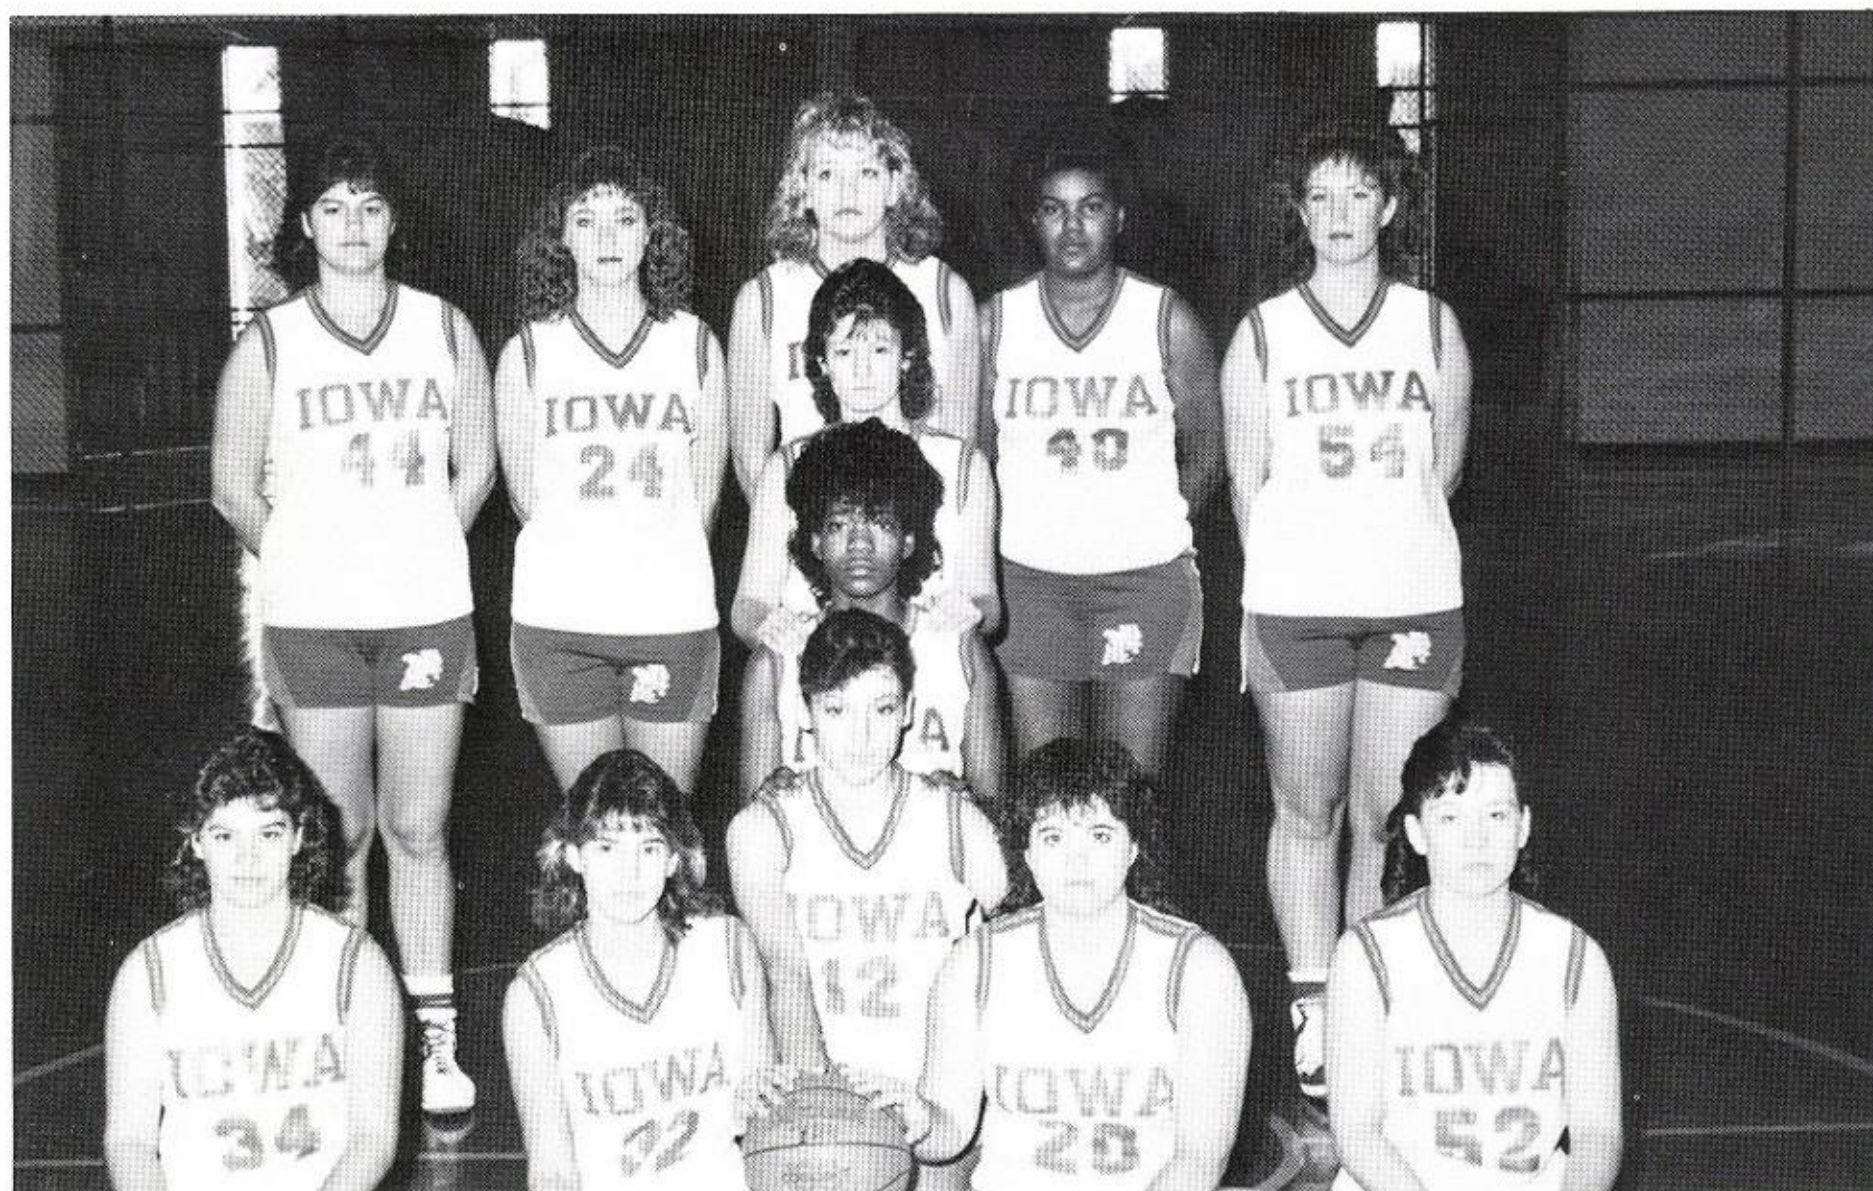

Earl Miller and Billy Marcantel were selected to the 1986-87 4AA district football team for offensive play. This is Miller's second year in a row to make the district team. In addition, Marcantel was named to the second team, defense.

None of this could be possible without coaches. The mentors who worked very hard with the team were: head coach Mike Oakley, and assistants Allen Painter, Jim Pilgreen, and Mike Marcantel.

Lady Jackets Fall Short!

The Lady Jackets fell short of the playoffs this season.

The team worked hard all season. Despite their hard work, their dreams of a playoff berth vanished.

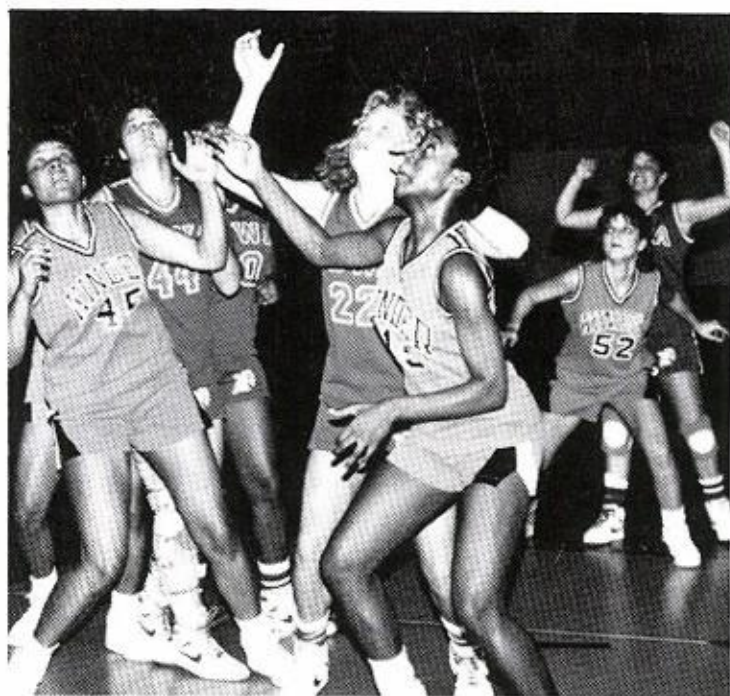

The Lady Jackets took the consolation honors in the Kinder Tournament by defeating Oberlin 50-41. They played for third place in the Iowa Christmas Tourney when district rival DeQuincy downed them 36-30.

High scorers for the season were Carmen Denison (12.7), Kristie Hartnett (8.5), Stacie Dailley (6.7), Nikki Breaux (3.6), Christi Denison (2.1), and Tammy Dugas (1.9).

The team averaged 37.8 points per game.

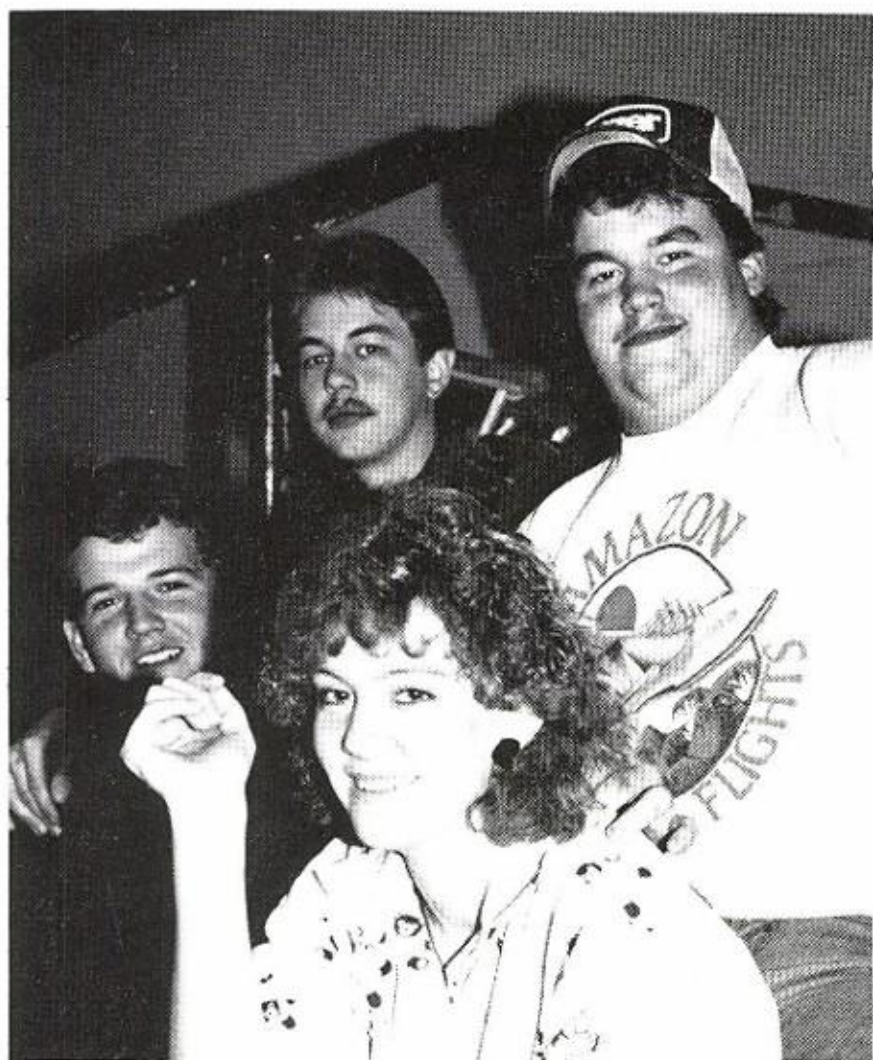

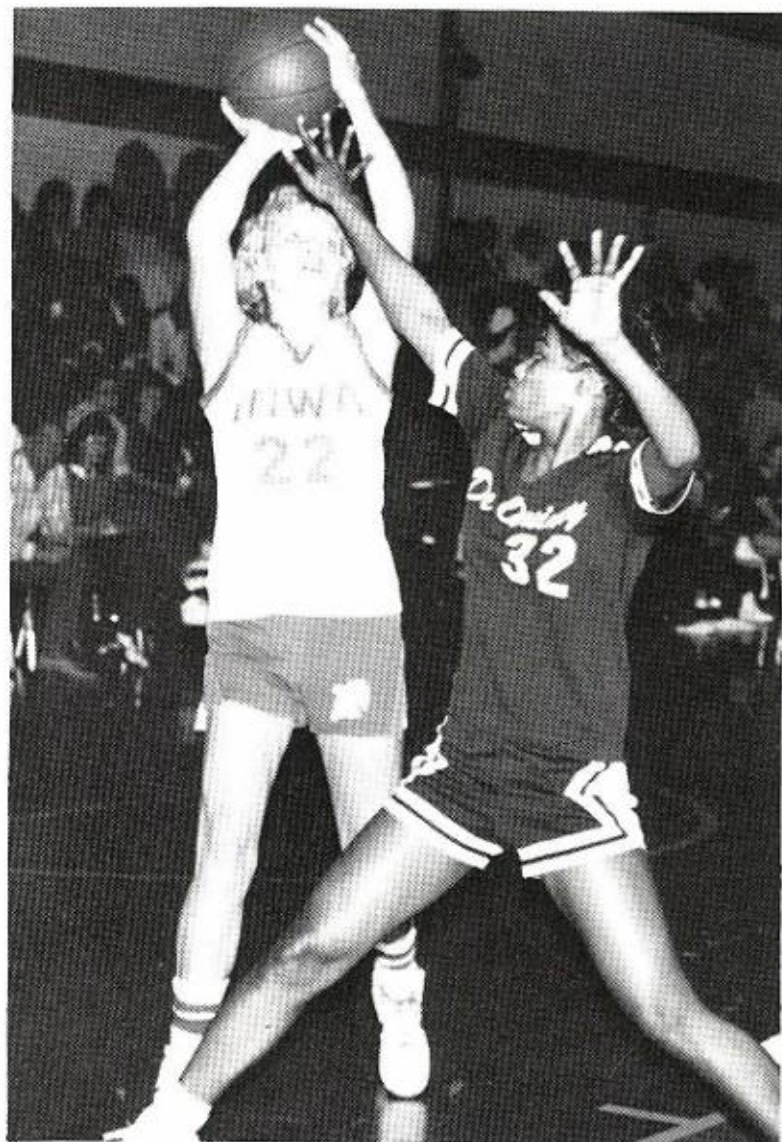

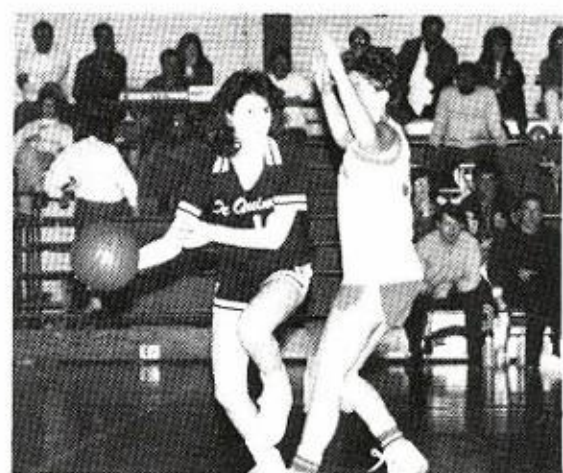

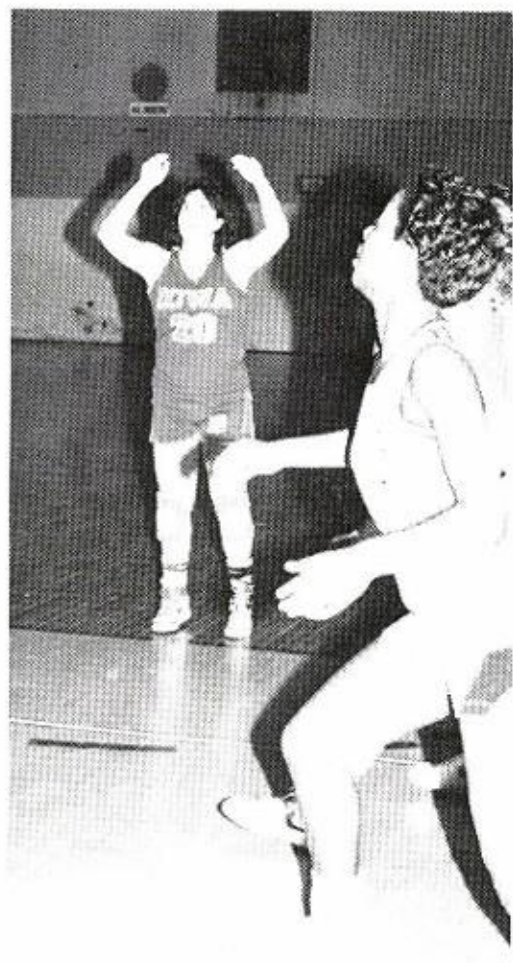

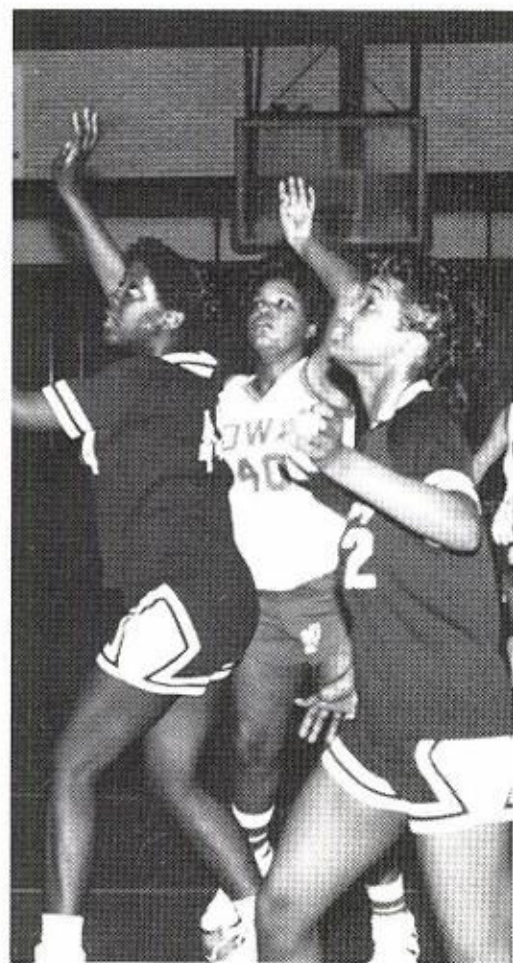

All-District honors went to Carmen Denison (2nd team).

Four starters will be returning for the 1987-88 season, so the Lady Jackets are looking forward to another playoff berth.

Coach Buller ready to go.

"The team had high hopes and played well," said Coach David Buller. "We simply lost several close games in district. But a good foundation has been built for our basketball program — thanks to our seniors."

The seniors carried their leadership roles this year. Second team all-district Larry Bellard led the team in scoring with an 18.1 average, followed closely by fellow seniors, Errol Marshall (17.9) and Eric Alexander (5.3). Marshall, a first team all-district selection and honorable mention all-state, led the Jackets in rebounds with 12.1 boards per contest. He was followed by fellow seniors Billy Marcantel (5.1 rebounds) and Alexander (4.2 rebounds).

"Juniors Jammin' to that Crazy Jacket Jungle Beat" was the junior class float's eye-catching theme. Many hours were spent working on the juniors float and everyone helped. Of course, all of the hard work paid off. The juniors' float captured 1st prize in the annual homecoming parade. The junior class was jubilant, it being their first time ever to place. The float was original and well put together. Congratulations, juniors!

Juniors-Movin' On Up

Juniors enjoyed an exciting year.

There were many stimulating activities for them to participate in.

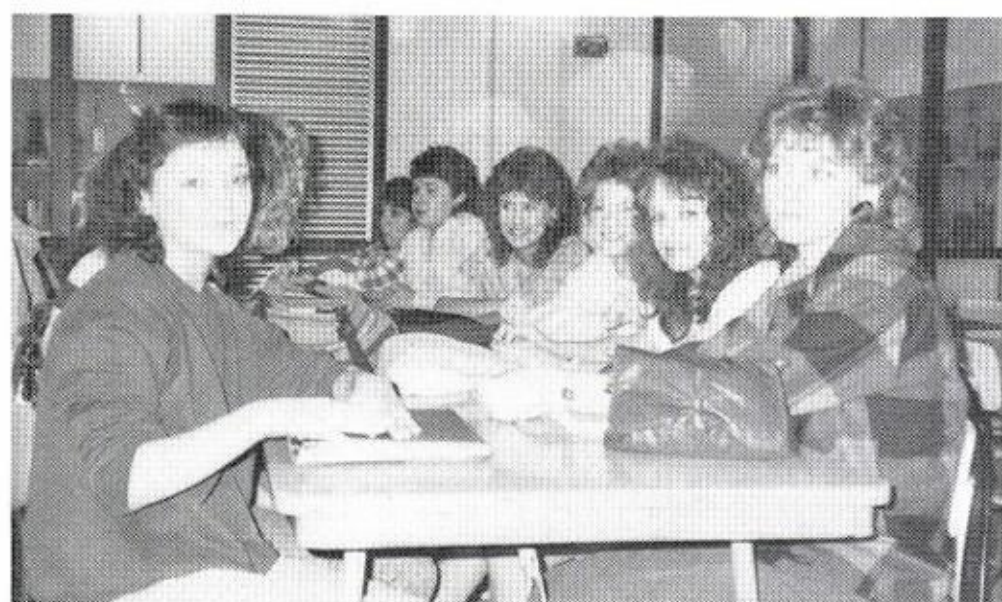

Ring day, prom, and field trips were few of the many new experiences the junior class shared.

As one eleventh-grader remarked, "It's been my best high school year ever!"

All right, sophomores — pay attention! Although they look like they're goofing off, they actually work extremely hard in Dr. Key's sophomore English class. For freshmen it is a new world, one of orientation, a teenage world . . . One where homecoming, pep rallies, and football games play an important part in their lives. Drug Free!!

SAPÉ, under the direction of Mr. Veron and Coach Buller, has been very active this year.

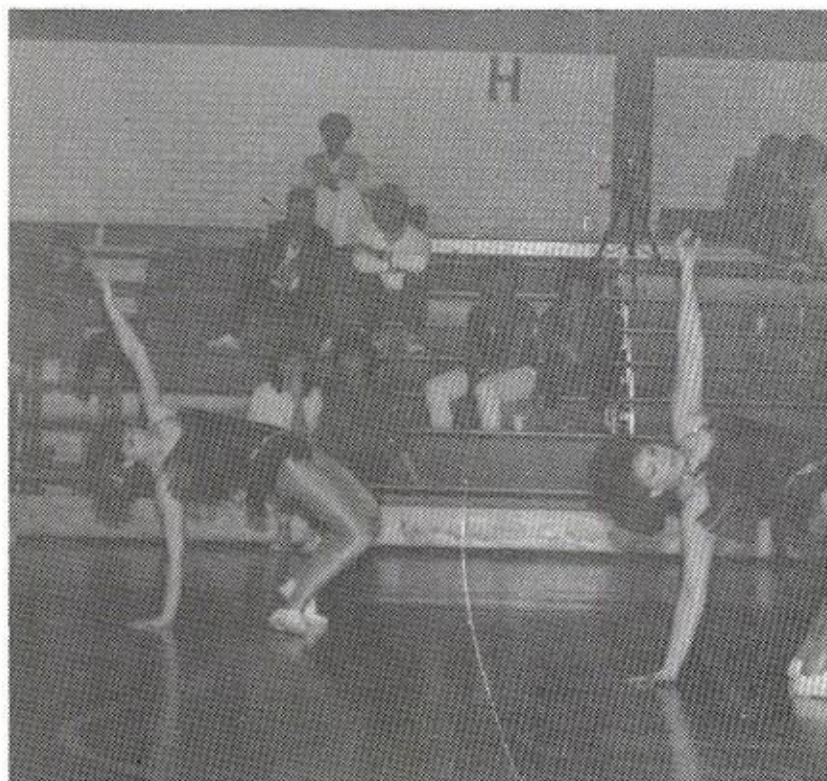

Activities included skits performed by students depicting bad ramifications of drug and alcohol usage, watching films, a balloon release, and films contrasting the effects of drugs and alcohol.

The club had a membership of over seventy students. Meadowview Hospital provided speakers from their ETC Unit for one meeting. This brought good response from the school and community.

Jacket Jammers!!

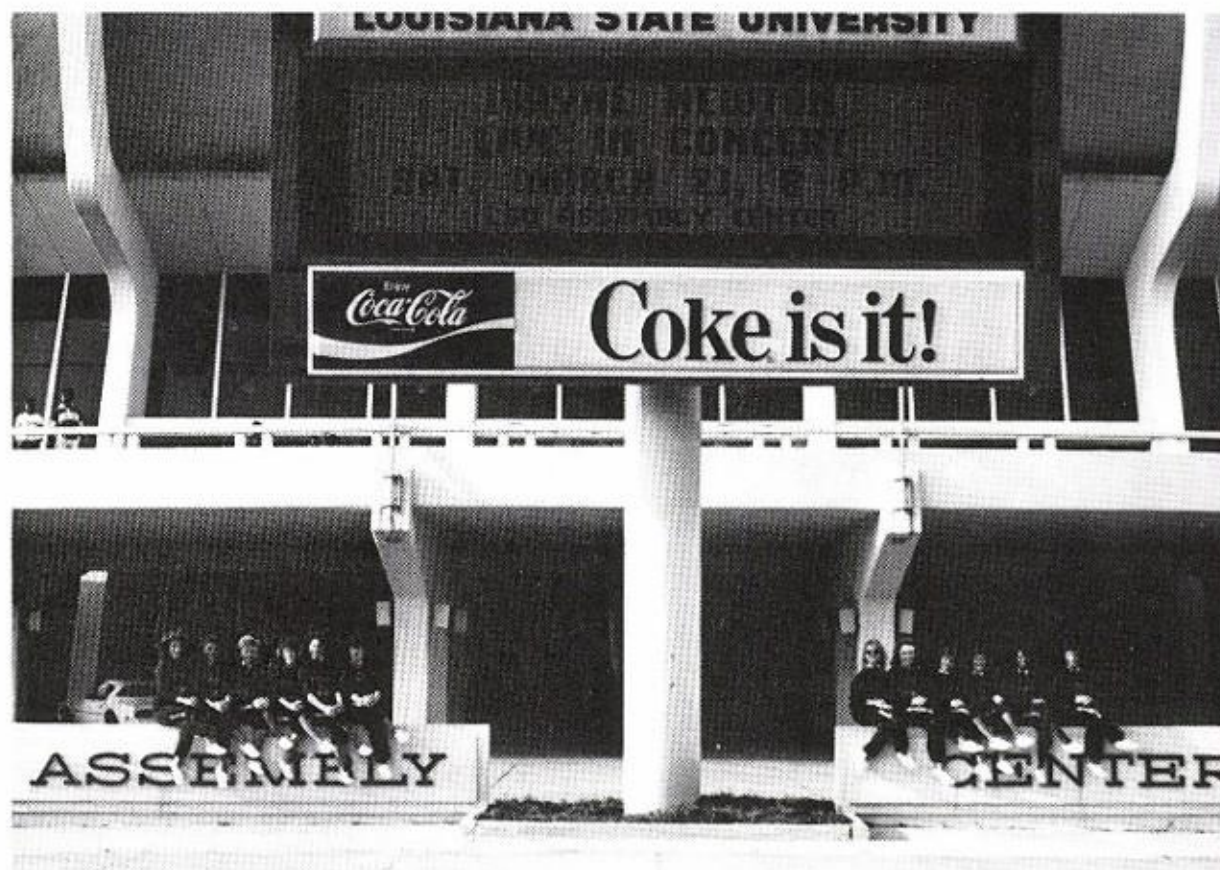

This year, Iowa High established a dance line known as the "Jacket Jammers".

The girls are sponsored by Mrs. Anita Alexander and Miss Janis Genius.

They performed at basketball games this year, as well as the boys and girls state basketball tournaments. The girls finished up their year by entertaining at the first annual Iowa Rabbit Festival.

Crowd Appeal!

Spirit, energy, enthusiasm, agility, coordination, and power. These are the characteristics that must be possessed by the Iowa High School cheerleaders.

This year's squad attended camp at the University of Southwestern Louisiana in Lafayette. They learned cheers, stunts, chants and dances which they performed at the football and basketball games.

Not only did the cheerleaders do a great job at getting the fans and students involved at the games, but at the pep rallies as well.

This year was one of the most successful for the IHS Science Club. An intresting lineup of guest speakers from Rockefeller Wildlife Refuge, Louisiana Department of Wildlife, McNeese State University Engineering Department, and McNeese State Department of Science, highlighted the bi-monthly meetings.

Several evenings were devoted to viewing the sky using the astronomy telescope.

The annual outing was a trip to Beaumont, Texas, to Gulf States Utilities and included a tour of the Edison Museum and corporate headquarters.

Annual Staff

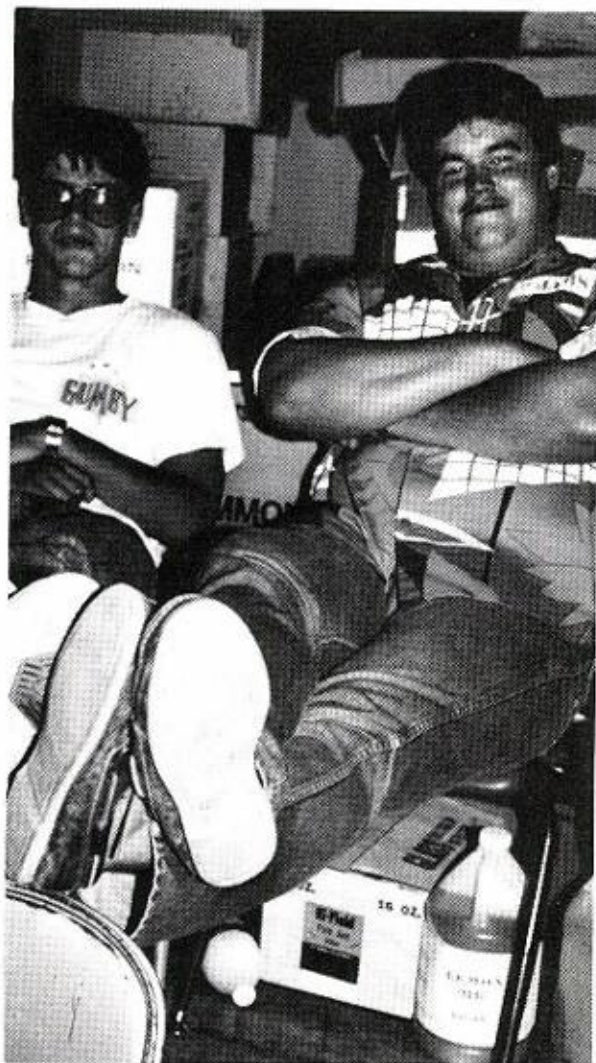

Left to right: Eric Alexander, co-editor; Leeann Harrington; Janis Genius, advisor; Jared Fuselier; Chris Alexander, sports; Alvin Cormier; Sarah Buller, Activities; Dana Sibley; Rochelle LeBlue, Activities; Joany Young; Shawn Augustine, seniors and faculty; Carmen Denison, sports and advertising; Lee Ann Marcantel, organizations; Alisha Chappell, organizations; Cheri Arsement, seniors and faculty; Amy Leger, classes; Greg Reed, co-editor. Not pictured: Paula Spears, typist; and Kelly Thibodeaux, photography.

The 1986-87 annual staff put in a lot of hard work in order to complete this book, which is the largest yearbook Iowa High School has ever published. Despite a slow economy, the staff worked diligently selling ads, books, and candy in order to pay for the 1987 Yellow Jacket.

In addition, the staffers worked on the newsletter as well as organizing school pictures and senior portraits. Pictured at left are members of the staff during a "reorganizing" period.

To... uh... uh... What's your name that I used to know - Sincerely Bony - it's hard to realize that you're a Jr.. and it's only been two (2) years. Phew! Having fun - time flies. It's too bad that you wanted me tell the truth.
You know the line -- to a real nice sweet kind girl...
What a bunch of ROT. I miss a lot of folks at the high school -- and you're one of the ones I miss most.
I appreciate you being --- and --- staying you!! I appreciate you for not playing the games that people play. I can't write any more of that "stuff" --- ya know --- getting all "choked" up -- GAG! ARGH!!
I hope you have a great year.
May God bless + guide you in all that you do this year! With love

Tonya,
I was really getting to know you good when I cheered with you.
But since you stopped
cheering, you stopped talking, well at least we had some laughs
together. Love you like a Sis
Shelly C

Tonya,

You're a very sweet, nice, & very pretty girl. Please stay that way & good luck in the future.

Tonya,

Hi Sweetie! You are such a sweet person. You have a great future ahead of you. I hope we can become closer friends. You can come to me anytime,
anyplace. 414 Delicia S.
Good-luck.

Tonya,
It has been a pleasure
knowing you and
having you in band.
You've come a long way as a player and now as a flag twirler. Keep your great attitude and good work.
God Bless
Bob Sweet

Sonya -

You know that you're "special people" to me. You are a fine young lady with great looks, a good mind, a super smile and a fine personality. Use all the great gifts God has given you and you will have a super special life - Thanks for being a good "ole gal" - even if you are a junk! If I can ever help - ask!!

Gonya,

I don't know quite how to tell you how much you mean to me. You've been there for me in the good times and even in the bad. (him) Even though you didn't agree w/ everything I did or wanted to do you stuck by me and was always there when I would fall. I will never forget you for that. We've had some good times haven't we? I hope we have alot more in the future. I know I can get on your nerves sometimes but just bear w/ me like you always do. I'm sorry if I've been neglecting you lately. You are my best friend of all my friends. You will always be the one I consider the closest one of my friends no matter what. Don't you ever leave me, you hear!! I love you, Gonya. (like a sister)
